

KVH Helping to Relieve Hunger in Middletown

If you've ever attended one of the monthly all-employee luncheons at KVH headquarters in Middletown, RI, you know why they are so popular -- fantastic food, great company, and a wonderful chance to get away from your desk and remember what your coworkers' faces look like! But do you know where the leftover food goes when lunch is over?

The office's administrative staff, who are also responsible for planning the monthly luncheons (thanks, Pam and Erin!) pack up whatever delicious food is left after the staff have eaten, and take it to Lucy's Hearth, a shelter for homeless women and children located nearby on West Main Road in Middletown (learn more about the shelter here). Check out the letter of thanks the company received from the Lucy's Hearth board of directors, below:

Dear Mrs. Kits,

The Board of Directors and the staff of Lucy's Hearth would like to thank you for your generous donation of KFC luncheon. We are extremely grateful for your support in our mission to help homeless women and their children.

Due to the severe shortage of affordable housing, many families in our state are homeless and the Hearth has operated at full capacity all year, providing shelter, meals, parenting class, counseling and money management. As we are completely dependent upon grants and donations for funding, we are very appreciative of your help.

Thank you once again for your generosity and support.

Sincerely,

Gale Bay
President, Board of Directors

P.S. For your records: Your gift was made without Lucy's Hearth rendering any goods or services. The donation is therefore tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. Lucy's Hearth is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.
