

Decorating with Hats, Mittens, and Good Will

Thanks to the generosity of many KU employees, KU had a beautifully decorated lobby for most of December and, most importantly, donated an entire carload of hats, mittens, gloves, scarves, socks, and coats to the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center in Newport, RI that will keep many children warm this winter. Both the tree and coat donation box had been filled and emptied once before these photos were taken!

